Jay Vidovich The winningest coach in Wake Forest soccer history, Jay Vidovich comes off a 2007 campaign that saw his Demon Deacons capture the College Cup national championship for the first time in Wake Forest history. Vidovich guided the Deacs to a 2-1 victory over Ohio State in their second consecutive College Cup appearance and the program's seventh straight NCAA berth, capping off Vidovich's 14th season at the helm of the program. Wake Forest finished 22-2-2 in the 2007 season. Well-known for his rapport with his players, Vidovich has worked with some of the country's best young talent. Members of this year's Wake Forest squad earned seven All-ACC spots, while three were named to the All-America squad, and five recently earned inclusion on the U-23 and U-20 US National Teams. Vidovich holds a USSF "A" license and a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma. He is a member of the Region III ODP Staff. Coach Vidovich is involved in all aspects of the camp and will be present at all training sessions. Known as one of this country's best teachers of the game, Coach Vidovich is looking forward to another successful camp program in 2009 and to working with you.

ABOUT WAKE FOREST SOCCER CAMP

Head Coach Jay Vidovich and the entire Wake Forest Soccer Staff are very excited to invite you to the 2009 Wake Forest Soccer Camp. The camps will take place on the campus of Wake Forest at Spry Soccer Stadium, the finest soccer facility in the nation.

The camp goal is to share the love of the game with younger players in the area. We will focus on individual ball skills and technique and then players will have the opportunity to use what they learn in fun, competitive games. With quality coaching the campers will leave with a solid foundation.

We pride ourselves on keeping youth players excited about the game of soccer while improving their skills. We are excited about the opportunity of working with you as we help take your game to a new level.

Carson Porter Carson is in his fifth season with the Demon Deacons. Before coming to Wake Forest, Carson worked with the Capital Area Soccer Club in Raleigh, NC, one of the most successful clubs in the country. Carson played college soccer at ACC rival North Carolina. His team won an ACC title and earned a #1 national ranking during his senior year. Carson holds a USSF license and an NSCAA Advanced National Diploma.

Jon Lowery Lowery enters his second season with the Demon Deacons after spending two years as an assistant coach at Ohio State University. Lowery works extensively with the goalkeepers and assists with all day-to-day aspects of the program. A former standout in goal with the Buckeyes, Jon played professionally with the Tampa Bay Mutiny and the Minnesota Thunder. Jon holds a USSF "A" license and an NSCAA Advanced National Diploma.

Ryan Martin Martin is in his second season with the Wake Forest men's soccer team. The former soccer standout and NSCAA All-American is a 2005 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. Ryan played professionally with Real Salt Lake and the Columbus Crew. He was named the top senior student-athlete at Ohio Wesleyan University. Ryan coaches for the Winston-Salem Twins and served as an assistant coach at Ohio Wesleyan.
